

ALL PART OF THE SERVICE

Staying biosecure as an equestrian professional

Clean and disinfect hands and feet

Protect, disinfect, or change clothes

Clean and disinfect equipment

Travel with disinfectant at hand

Check and follow all yard biosecurity protocols

Make yards with an outbreak your last visit of the day

Wash clothes at 60° centigrade to kill Strangles bacteria

Keep a daily record of all premises attended

Remember that infectious horses can seem completely healthy!

STRANGLES
AWARENESS
WEEK
4-10 MAY 2026

Basic biosecurity is better for horses and better for business. Find out more and stay up-to-date with @StranglesAwarenessWeek on social media.